Multiple Awnings : exclusive distributor of JOSUMA's patented shutters

Beloil, December 1, 2006 – Multiple Awnings is proud to announce that it is now the exclusive distributor for JOSUMA's patented shutters.

These high quality mechanical shutters not only lower heating and air conditioning costs but also reduce outside noise. In addition, they withstand winds of over 285 km/h and level 5 hurricanes.

Multiple Awnings holds the exclusive distribution rights in North America for these shutters and plans to promote them at the many trade shows the company participates in over the year.

JOSUMA shutters are also available to distributors through Multiple Awnings Distribution Inc.
